VOL. XI.

MARBLE HILL, BOLLINGER COUNTY, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1891.

NO. 31.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

—Whitson Jamison has returned home.

—Best cigar on earth at E. O. Sander's store.

—A. R. Jaques has something to say in this issue.

—Five lbs. of good coffee at Drum's for one dollar.

—Four female physicians exist in one St. Louis family.

—Ten etc. will buy a good pair of mittens at N. E. Hall's.

—Erich O. Sander has placed a street lamp in front of his store.

—Rubber goods in abundance, and cheap, at Snider's, Lutesville.

—There were 144 McCormick binders sold in Cape county last spring.

—John J. Sullivan is having a tussle with John Barleycorn, with J. B. on top.

—Probate Judge Frymire will please accept our thanks for an order for stationery.

—A new stock of Hats and Caps just received at the mammoth store of R. Drum.

—Lander Lutes, son of David Lutes, has moved from Maltby to Carthage, Mo.

—A great reduction in ladies watch and neck chains at Dr. A. R. Jaques, store, Lutesville.

—The greatest blizzard since 1888 was raging in the Dakotas and Northwest last week.

—Did you see the patent churn dasher for sale at the postoffice, Lutesville, Mo? It is guaranteed.

—D. M. Scivalley of Cape Girardeau was in the Hill a few hours last Thursday morning.

—Don't you know Dr. Jaques' Improved Liver Pills are the safest and best family remedy.

—The resignation of Redfield Proctor as Secretary of War has been accepted by the President.

—Germantown, Saxony, Zephyr and common stocking yarns of all colors to be found at Drum's.

—Monroe Lloyd's daughter, who was reported very sick some time ago, is quite well again.

—Don't you know Dr. Jaques' Compound Cough Syrup is the best to cure coughs, colds and pneumonia?

—Marriage license:—R. J. Hubbard to Addie L. Tankersley; Joseph B. Fish to Bertha Stratman.

—Toilet articles of all kinds—fine soap, perfumery, tooth brushes, etc., at E. O. Sander's at reasonable prices.

—Gen. John C. Black of Chicago has announced himself a candidate for the Governorship of Illinois.

—Ladies' Misses' and Gents' Artie overshoes and rubber shoes and boots at Drum's. Oh! how cheap they are.

—The ice had to be broken before a couple of people could be baptised in a creek near Jackson last week.

—And that stock of furniture in that big store of Drum's! He is selling cheaper than any place in Southeast Mo.

—According to the latest advice about the recent earthquake in Japan 7,560 were killed and 10,120 injured.

—Don't you know Dr. Jaques' Good Samaritan will relieve cholera in Man or Horse quicker than any other medicine!

—John Fry, formerly living in Wayne Township, moved last week into the Patterson settlement in Liberty Twp.

—Henry M. Smith has our thanks for an order for stationery. Henry knows where to get first-class printing done.

—High priced and low priced prints—in fact every kind of prints at N. E. Hall's store in Lutesville. Come and see them.

—Minneapolis Millers propose that 5,000 American millers join in sending 40,000 barrels of flour to starving Russia.

—This office filed an order for 500 amber laid envelopes for Prof. E. R. Graham. The Prof. and the M. S. A. are at the front.

—E. O. Sander, the jeweler, has lovely goods at low prices. See them before you let your money "slide." It will pay you big.

—The Marquand correspondent to the Argus says: "T. B. Brown's wife and daughter passed through here a few days ago, taking the train for San Francisco, Cal., where they go to attend the winter for the benefit of their daughter's health."

—You will find a full line of Fascinators, Shawls and Ladies Jackets at O. J. Snider & Co.'s.

—We wish to have it generally known that we received last week a large invoice of envelopes. Come to us for your work.

—F. M. Snider, one of our most prosperous farmers of near Ladin, brought us an ear of corn on which were about 1,400 grains.

—The First Quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church, South, for this circuit was held at Hahn's Chapel last Saturday and Sunday.

—Charles F. Stewart was arrested here last week and taken to Charleston, where he is charged with having violated the State law.

—L. Dehls says he will open the campaign for Prohibition on Saturday evening next, at the Patterson schoolhouse on Perkin's Creek.

—"Doc" Lessley, who lives on "Lessley Ridge" and who has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism for some time, is improving.

—Cigars at Erich O. Sander's store. He has a gold watch which he is going to give to one of his customers. You may be the one—who knows!

—The contract has been let by the county court of Wayne county for furnishing the booths to be used in that county in voting under the new law.

—Miss Harriet Whybark and Mr. Samuel Whybark are stopping in town with Robert Fisher. They may make their permanent home in this town.

—Oh, my! have you seen those pretty Ladies' jackets and all wool black shawls at that big store of DRUM'S in Marble Hill? They ARE SO CHEAP, too.

—In Dunklin county, an exchange says, coon skins are now legal currency and will pay for anything but whiskey. It takes gold or silver to buy that article.

—Remember that W. E. Rockwell keeps a complete line of general merchandise in the Masonic Hall building in Marble Hill, which he will sell CHEAP. Call and see him.

—Rev. W. H. Roberts, who preached in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday, will visit this place on the 4th instead of the 1st Sunday in each month hereafter.

—Free trade on sugar at Drums. He sells 18 lbs. granulated, 19 lbs. white C, 21 lbs. yellow C, and 22 lbs. brown for $1 each. So come and buy your sweetness for Xmas.

—Ora Thornburgh and Ike Teeters are hunting and trapping in the southern part of this county, and are having moderate success. They will likely continue in the business all winter.

—CLOTHING! CLOTHING!! New coming in every day—Children's, Boy's, and Youth's pants and suits of every description and so cheap that it will make you smile, at Drum's.

—The Cape Girardeau New Era was in error last week when it stated that Dr. Witmer of this place was dead. The Dr. still lives, and has never enjoyed better health than he does at the present time.

—J. B. Thompson and W. G. Works have purchased the right to sell the Texas patent churn dasher, and have same for sale at the postoffice at Lutesville. Don't fail to get one.

—The business portion of Charleston came very near being wiped out by fire again Friday morning, and as usual, a defective flue was at the bottom of it. The fire was discovered just in time to save the town.

—Head, the negro who shot at attorney Elliott in 1888 was acquitted in the circuit court at Farmington last week. The case is the outcome of the campaign of 1888 when Head, who is a politician and preacher, bitterly opposed Elliott, who was a candidate for Pros. Att'y. of Mississippi county at the time. They quarreled, Elliott slashed Head with a knife, and Head returned the compliment by drawing a revolver from his pocket and firing a number of shots at Elliott, all of which went wild. Before the trial ended State's attorney Elliott and Paul G. Moore, attorney for the defendant, got into an altercation while at supper in a Farmington hotel, which soon spread in to a "hot and shell" fight. The attorneys have since made friends.

—If you want "Gimp" dress trimmings go to N. E. Hall's.

—Mrs. Mitchell of Cape Girardeau, wife of the editor of the New Era, was in Marble Hill yesterday.

—O. J. Snider & Co. have received another big order of merchandise, and invite you to come and inspect them.

—J. P. McManus was a pleasant caller at this office Monday. He has a position in the State Grain Inspection Department in St. Louis at $60 per month. He is at home on a visit to his family, but will return to the city in a week or so.

—Have you grease spots on your clothing? If so call and purchase a bottle of our Magic Erasive Fluid. A single bottle will convince you. 15 cents will buy a bottle.

A. R. JAQUES.
[It is the best we ever used—Ed.]

—T. R. Green of Lutesville went out to look at a farm he has homesteaded in the Patterson settlement Monday. He was accompanied by a Mr. Small from Indiana. Mr. Green says he contemplates erecting a frame house on his property soon.

—N. E. Hall sells Burfordville flour, "A No. 1," at 60c and "White Silk" at 65c.

—Sargent John Frakes of I troop, 8th cavalry, with headquarters at Fort Mead, South Dakota, is visiting his comrade, L. E. Kanfmann of this place, late of D troop, same regiment. Both gentlemen were among those who quelled the last hostile Indian outbreak, in which Sitting Bull, the old chief, lost his life.

—I took a look through the great emporium of R. Drum the other day and I NEVER was so surprised to see such a large line of good Mdse. in Bollinger Co. His store building is immense—ninety feet long, forty feet wide, full two stories high, divided into several different departments and chuck full of goods from bottom to top, and every line complete. You ought to go and see it.

LUTESVILLE LOCALS.

Some words on language may be well applied, and take them kindly, though they touch your pride; Words lead to things; a scale is more precise—

Coarse speech, bad grammar, swearing, drinking vice.

W. A. Barrett of Castor was in town this week.

Noah Burk of Castor was in town a few days since.

You can buy a shawl at N. E. Hall's for $1. and up.

Prayer meeting in this town every Wednesday night.

Prof. Hubbard of Santa Fe, Kan., has been in town for several days.

Mrs. Kitchens of Paxico was visiting friends and relatives here last week.

Look to your own interest and buy your millinery goods from Mrs. Biggs.

Thos. R. Green and H. M. Small went to Marquand last week on business.

John Barrett, a brother of W. A. Barrett went to Cape county on a visit this week.

Others may follow, but Mrs. Biggs leads in fine and seasonable millinery goods.

H. Crafton has just finished plastering the bank. It will soon be ready for the cash.

Lutesville needs about fifteen new dwelling houses to accommodate those who wish to rent.

—If you want this paper and the "twice-a-week" Republic, of St. Louis, send us $1.75.

R. Fisher, who has been courting in St. Louis for the past month returned home Sunday.

Ell Lutes left Friday for Bloomfield to join his family. Eli is talking of building at that place.

If you want good bargains in ladies hats go to Mrs. Biggs. She can suit you in prices and quality of goods.

Dr. A. J. Mayfield of St. Louis came down last Saturday to see his daughter, Mrs. H. A. Clark, who is quite sick.

Died, on the 2nd inst., of typhoid fever, a little son of John Baker. The bereaved family have our sympathy.

Chickens and eggs taken in exchange for patent churn dashers. Call and see them, at the postoffice, Lutesville, Mo.

Rev. Witt of Tennessee arrived here this week to help on this circuit. He preached a very able sermon here Sunday night.

See the patent churn dasher at the postoffice, Lutesville. It is guaranteed to churn quicker and with less work than any churn on the globe.

Wm. Waldow showed us some specimens of lead ore which he found near the town. He will sink a shaft. Wish we had some more Waldows, and this county would be better off.

On last Friday night when no one suspected any mischief in town, the moon just putting forth her beams to gladden our hearts and give the school boy light to place his muddy sandals, we were surprised to know that Prof. Hubbard in the light of a Christian moon, had led Miss Addie Tankersley to Hy-men's altar.
